ENGLISH SILVER COINS, &c.

- 00 305 Penny of Henry III., 1216 to 1272. Ob. "Henricus Rex III.;" rev., long double cross, with three pellets; Moneyer's name, Willem; fair and scarce.
- 00 306 Penny of Edward I., 1272 to 1307; ob. full face "Edw. R. Angel Dns. Hyb.;" rev. Civitas London—long cross, 3 pellets in each angle, really very fair for the period, and scarce.

- 22.00 307 A full set of the money of Queen Elizabeth, 1558 to 1603, from the crown to the penny. The only entire set I have ever known to be offered at public or private sale. The crown has been rubbed on the obverse, the head of the Queen being much worn: in other respects it would be a fine crown. The half-crown has been rubbed in a similar manner, but is much rarer than the crown. The shilling is the rare one, with the small bust. This, and all the rest, are in satisfactory condition. The set contains eight pieces.
- 1.25 308 Charles I., 1625 to 1649. Half crown. Ob. King on horse-back. Mint mark, anchor, poor, but scarce.
- 35 309 Shilling of same monarch, head to left, very poor.
- 1.50 310 Scotch Shilling, of James I. of England and VI. of Scotland; mint mark, Thistle flower-crowned; head rubbed, but otherwise fair; scarce.

- 1.25 313 William and Mary, 1688 to 1695; ob., Heads looking left; rev., Britannia 1694; farthing in silver; but little circulated and very scarce.
- 35 314 Pattern farthing in silver; ob., Head of William; rev. Head of Mary; barely fair and scarce.
